[First draft of letter, in note-book]

[January, 1903]

Mr. G. D. Smith,
County Surveyor,
Visalia, Tulare Co., Cal.

Dear Mr. Smith:

The photographs and your kind letter came yesterday, for which I sincerely thank you. I believed you were a regular professional photographer, else I never should have thought of ordering pictures.

We missed you on our Whitney trip. It was glerious. You doubtless enjoyed [it] also, and when next you and your wife come to San Francisco I hope you will come to our house.

Congratulating you, I am, with all best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

[John Muir]

P.S. I send two books by this mail.
